

Spring's Newest Coats

We have just returned from market and bought dozens of handsome new coats that are the last word in style. Coats in the very new shades including tans, rookie, greys, new shades of blue, gold, etc. The materials used are velours, camel's hair, gabardines and poplins. We were able to get hold of a lot of sample coats that we shall sell at special prices. No two coats alike here.

$7.50 to $25

and up. Don't fail to see this line.

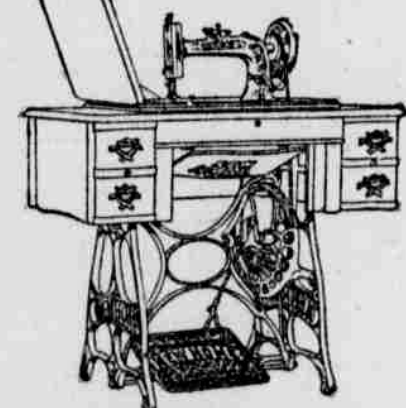

Special Club Offer

For One Week Only on a Limited Number of

NEW HOME Sewing Machines

$1 Down and $1 Each Week

until the machine is paid for. This is the most convenient way to obtain one of the world's finest sewing machines. The machine you select will be delivered when the first payment is made, and instructions will be given in your own home if desired.

Sale Opens Monday April 16, and Continues One Week, Closing Saturday, April 21

It will pay you to select the machine you desire early in the week and secure instructions from a New Home operator, who will be with us Friday and Saturday, April 20 and 21, to show the merits of the New Home, giving a demonstration and window display.

The Homer Fitts Company

MONTPELIER

Seminary Students Give Rousing Send-Off to Students Joining Navy.

A big delegation of Montpelier seminary students gave two of their number, Chester Ramsdell and Harold Pike, an enthusiastic send-off at the Central Vermont station this forenoon, the two boys having enlisted in the navy. Ramsdell, captain of last fall's football team and a substitute on the basketball team, passed examinations in this city and will enlist as an electrician. Pike has also been prominent in athletics at the institution and will serve the government as a clerk. The students cheered heartily as the train departed.

Miss Marion Robb of Knowlton, Que., who has been spending ten days in the city with Miss Mattie Price, left this forenoon for St. Albans to visit relatives before returning to her home.

Gov. H. F. Graham went this forenoon to Sharon on business.

Millard W. Taft, assistant secretary of the Senate, accompanied by Mrs. Taft and child, left this forenoon for Bristol. He will probably be in Burlington to assist Secretary Guy W. Bailey for a week or more.

Miss Betty DeBoer returned this morning to Burlington to resume her studies at Bishop Hopkins hall, having spent a few days in the city with her mother.

Francis O'Brien completed his duties in the Imperial Saturday and left today for St. Albans to visit friends before going to Rutland, where he has accepted a position.

Antonio Giacchino of Colbat, Van., for several years a resident of Montpelier and Barre, visited friends in the city yesterday on his way to New York and Philadelphia, where he will make an extended visit with relatives.

A. E. Butterfield was called to Burlington this forenoon by the serious condition of his wife, who submitted to a serious operation at Mary Fletcher hospital last Wednesday.

William Farwell returned to-day to Amherst, Mass., where he is a student at Amherst college, having spent the week end in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Farwell. With other Amherst students, Mr. Farwell plans to work for the government in a ship building yard.

In spite of the cold and disagreeable weather of the past week Coach Maiden has had his Montpelier seminary baseball squad practicing daily on the campus, which is in good shape. The team will be made up practically as it was last spring with Holway, the southpaw, doing the bulk of the twirling and Granai alternating as a shortstop and pitcher. Coach Maiden will have a strong infield with Granai playing in his regular position and there are numerous candidates for the outer garden jobs. The first game may be played with the Italian A. C. of Barre next Saturday, weather permitting.

John H. Bartlett returned last evening to Boston to resume his studies at a business college, having spent a week in the city with relatives.

The body of Frank R. Carrigan, who was found dead in a room in the Tomasi block late Saturday night, was taken today to Northfield and the funeral will be held to-morrow forenoon at 9 o'clock from St. John's Catholic church, with burial in the old Catholic cemetery. Mr. Carrigan was taken ill about 8 o'clock Saturday evening, but seemed to improve within an hour only to suffer a relapse. He was alone when he died and it was necessary to summon the police and the health officer. Dr. William Lindsay pronounced the cause of death to be heart disease. The deceased was born in Moretown 40 years ago, the son of Richard and Mary (Stack) Carrigan. For the past twenty years he has been employed on various farms in Moretown, Berlin and Cabot. He was last employed in Cabot, coming to Montpelier about a week ago. He was never married and is survived by two brothers, John of New London, Conn., an engineer on the Central Vermont railroad, William of White River Junction, also an employee of the Central Vermont, and two sisters,

Miss Inez Maberini, who has been visiting at her home on Foss street since the beginning of the Easter vacation, left yesterday for Plainfield, where she will teach during the spring term of school.

The Hospital hall Wednesday night in Howland hall promises to be the big dance of the season. Carroll's orchestra will furnish the latest in music and punch will be served. Gentlemen's tickets $1, ladies 50c.

We wish to thank all neighbors and other friends for their prompt assistance and many acts of kindness during the misfortune occasioned by fire in our home; also we wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Keith for her assistance.

Mrs. D. W. McLeod and family, Westerville, Vt.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Auto stage, Williamstown and Barre, commencing April 18, daily except Sunday. Leave Williamstown hotel 9 a. m., 1 and 5 p. m. Leave Hotel Barre 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. A. H. Norris.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, APRIL 16, 1917.

The Weather

Fair to-night and probably Tuesday; cooler to-night; moderate northwest winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's line of new coat models. Fishing and hunting licenses have been received at the city clerk's office. The curtain will rise on "Gypsy Love" at 8:30 to-night at the Barre opera house. Hear the new Parquet records at Martin's Book Store, 25c. All the latest selections.

Mrs. Phoebe Gearson of 30 Nelson street was taken to the City hospital today and underwent a serious operation. Selling out this week Homer Fitts' big stock of women's and children's high and low shoes at some price. She's Shoe Store.

G. E. Carlson and Charles Swanson of Milford, Mass., arrived in the city Saturday to spend a few days visiting friends on North Main street.

Storer W. Jones, a roomer in the Quinlan block, was taken to the City hospital to-day for treatment. Mr. Jones is in a very serious condition.

John Morrison, who has been passing a vacation of a week at his home on Laurel street, returned this morning to Proctor, where he is employed by the Vermont Marble Co.

Regular meeting of the ladies of Clan Gordon called at 6:30 Tuesday, April 17. All clansmen and members with invited guests be at the hall at 8 p. m. for anniversary concert and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Miles, who have been staying at St. Petersburg, Fla., since last autumn, and who, during the past two weeks, visited friends in Washington, D. C., while en route north, arrived in the city yesterday.

Charles Elliott, who has been employed as a candy maker in Montpelier during the past seven years, and before that in Brattleboro, arrived in the city this morning, where he has assumed the duties as candy maker at the Ward Barre Candy Kitchen.

Virginia Laflargo, a printer employed by the Argus of Montpelier, who has been a patient in the Heaton hospital, following injuries received several weeks ago in the printing plant, has been moved to his home on Smith street, this city. Friends of Mr. Laflargo will be glad to learn that he is recovering steadily from his injuries.

Barring the excursion to Barre made by George Mann of Wells River, all was quiet in police headquarters through the week end. Mann, who was locked up on an intoxication charge Saturday, acknowledged a first offense when arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court this morning and went to jail for the minimum sentence.

Archie G. Perry, who, with Mrs. Perry, recently came here from Troy, N. Y., assumed his official duties as street superintendent this morning. His first task was mapped out on North Main street, where laborers were engaged to-day in sweeping away the last vestige of the winter's accumulation of refuse. Ice had been allowed to remain on the pavement because the weather man denied the department his assistance in loosening the sheet formation on the west side of the thoroughfare, but this will be removed at once.

Friends of the groom, who formerly resided in Barre, will be interested in the following item, sent from Warren, O., to The Times: "Coming as a great surprise to their many friends was the marriage of Lorin A. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Anderson of Paige avenue, and Edith W. Raber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Raber of the Perkins road, at the Christ parish house by Rev. L. P. McDonald. The groom is a machinist for the Halsey Taylor Co., while the bride holds a position with the Ohio Lamp works. The groom formerly resided in Barre."

Herbert P. Buzzell arrived in the city Saturday to spend a few days visiting his father, Henry A. Buzzell, and brother, Arthur A. Buzzell, of Pearl street. Since Mr. Buzzell left Vermont in 1888, he has not seen his father or sister, who lives in Concord, and has not seen his brother in 35 years. During his absence from Vermont he has lived in several cities in Florida, after which he went to Lincoln, Neb., where he worked for several years, afterwards going to Chicago, where he is now located, having been employed at the trade as a printer for the Rand, McNally Publishing Co., for a number of years back.

William B. Marmon of North Main street, who has been connected with two railroad offices in Barre for the past 12 years, left this morning to assume his new duties as a traveling agent for the Boston & Maine railroad, his transfer having come to him in the form of a deserved promotion, after eight years of faithful service in the M. & W. R. freight office in Barre. His new assignment details him to service in New Haven, Conn., Worcester, Holyoke and Springfield, Mass., and Concord Junction, N. H. Twelve years ago Mr. Marmon, after completing his education in a Canadian college, began work as an office attaché in the Central Vermont freight station. Four years later he entered the employ of the M. & W. R. railroad and was for a time employed as a cashier, later succeeding the late Mr. Stanyan as chief clerk. At the M. & W. R. freight office this morning employees evinced their high regard for Mr. Marmon by presenting him a leather traveling bag, a cravat pin and a box of cigars.

Mrs. Charlotte Ramella of Berlin street, who has been taking a vacation of several weeks from her duties as clerk at the Union Dry Goods store, resumed her work to-day.

Miss Inez Maberini, who has been visiting at her home on Foss street since the beginning of the Easter vacation, left yesterday for Plainfield, where she will teach during the spring term of school.

The Hospital hall Wednesday night in Howland hall promises to be the big dance of the season. Carroll's orchestra will furnish the latest in music and punch will be served. Gentlemen's tickets $1, ladies 50c.

We wish to thank all neighbors and other friends for their prompt assistance and many acts of kindness during the misfortune occasioned by fire in our home; also we wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Keith for her assistance.

Mrs. D. W. McLeod and family, Westerville, Vt.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Auto stage, Williamstown and Barre, commencing April 18, daily except Sunday. Leave Williamstown hotel 9 a. m., 1 and 5 p. m. Leave Hotel Barre 11 a. m., 3 and 7 p. m. A. H. Norris.

Meeting of Iroquois tribe, No. 16, I. O. R. M., to-night at 7:30 for the purpose of conferring degrees.

Annual convocation of Granite chapter, No. 26, R. A. M., Tuesday, April 17, at 7 p. m. Annual reports and business. Refreshments. Per order E. H. P.

Special meeting of Winnetka council, No. 18, I. O. R. M., Monday evening at 6:30.

Union Dry Goods Company

THIS WEEK

A Special Display of Girl's Wash Dresses

We have just received over 200 Children's Wash Dresses in sizes from 2 to 14 years. The styles are very attractive, and a large assortment to select from. It does not pay you to make them, when you can buy such pretty Dresses at special prices we are quoting. Complete assortments in all sizes, priced from 50c to $1.98 each.

BUNGALOW APRONS—A large assortment of these House Aprons just received, made of good quality Percale, etc.

THIS WEEK, SPECIAL VALUES IN OUR GARMENT DEPARTMENT and featuring the newest style ideas in smart and exclusive ready-to-wear.

SPRING SUITS—Handsome Suits in the new season's most fashionable fabrics, the new colors, also the conservative models in Navy Blue and Black. We make all alterations. A splendid assortment to select from, priced from$15.00 to $35.00

SPRING COATS—The new Coats are very stylish. A large variety to choose from in the new and fashionable colors. You will find our prices quite a little less, so make your selection to-day. They are priced from$10.00 to $35.00

Monday Evening Special, 6 to 8 O'clock—500 yards Standard 7c Prints, per yard, at

This is a sale you cannot afford to miss, as these goods are selling in nearly every other store now at 10c per yard. We offer for this evening's selling this quantity only, and a limit of 12 yards to a customer. Shop early: store closes at 8 o'clock.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

A Hat With a Policy

In consideration of $3.00, the price of this Hat, we insure it to be perfect in manufacture and to give satisfaction in every respect, providing it is not misused; and we replace the same with a new Hat for one which has not given satisfaction. We leave it to your sense of fairness. You will find all the newest shapes and colors here.

We are showing the newest fabrics and latest models in Men's and Young Men's Suits, in a range of prices that cannot be equalled in the city.

CROSSETT SHOES

BEACON SHOES

The Big, Busy Union Store

Union Clothing Company

Depot Square

'Phone 599-W

Barre, Vermont

TALK OF THE TOWN

"The Double Room Mystery," a five-reel feature, at the Bijou to-day.—adv.

P. E. Hawley commenced work this morning for H. F. Cutler & Son at the Palace garage.

Lovers of high class music have a treat at the opera house to-night when "Gypsy Love" will be played.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gale of Boston arrived in the city last evening to spend several days visiting in Barre and with friends and relatives in Williamstown.

Mrs. B. W. Hooker and Mrs. Frank Jackson returned to their homes yesterday, after visiting friends and relatives in East Calais for a while through the sugaring season.

Washington county Sunday schools exceeded their appointment on the deficit of the Vermont State Sunday School association by a margin of several dollars, according to the report of Dr. O. G. Stickney, who returned Saturday from Burlington, where he attended a meeting of the state executive committee Friday.

Not long ago the association was $2,400 in arrears and plans for a whirlwind campaign to clear up the deficit fixed $175 for the offering from Washington county Sunday schools. They have responded with contributions aggregating $185, and the state debt is practically assured of being wiped out.

GRANITEVILLE

Miss Frances Finnigan has returned to her school work in Sheffield after passing a month's vacation at her home.

Harold Carey and Arthur Healey have returned to their studies at St. Michael's college, Winoski, having spent the Easter recess with relatives.

Mrs. John McLeod, who has been visiting relatives here for the past week, returned to her home in Littleton, N. H., Saturday.

Murdo, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Murray, died Thursday of membranous croup. The funeral was private and interment was made in the Wilson cemetery. Rev. James Ramage officiated.

A daughter was born Friday, April 13, to Mr. and Mrs. John Coxen.

Miss Margaret McGrath of Barre, who has been assisting in the care of Joseph Clark, jr., completed her duties there last Thursday.

Miss Henrietta McLean of Barre spent the week end here with relatives.

Daniel Murray and Miss Katherine Murray of Hartford are here, called by the illness and death of their brother, Murdo.

M. M. McLeod and Norman McLeod have purchased adjoining farms in Ver-

FUNERAL OF F. CANEVARI

Was Held Saturday Afternoon from His Daughter's Home.

The funeral of Francesco Canevari, for many years a traveling merchant in Italy, and one of the older members of the Italian colony in Barre, whose death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Alexander Caretto, 108 Railroad street, early Thursday morning, was held at the house Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The attendance included many members of the Italian Old Men's society, and among their number the following bearers were included: John Abbiatti, Santo Manera, A. Nicora and C. Lamperti. Floral tributes came from a wide circle of friends and relatives. Interment was made in Hope cemetery.

PROBABLY FATALY INJURED.

Amos Vasseur Struck By Train Near Burlington.

Burlington, April 16.—Amos Vasseur of First street was struck by a freight train at a point near the high bridge near Athletic park about 6 o'clock Sunday morning and probably fatally injured. He suffered a bad fracture of the skull, a piece of bone penetrating the brain. He was taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital in the police ambulance. Vasseur, who is about 26 years old, was on his way to work in the woolen mill at Winoski. No one saw the accident, the unconscious man being discovered shortly after by S. B. Calkins. Vasseur is married and has one child.

A SALUTE!

TOGETHER with our spring salutation, we desire to call attention to our lines of particularly choice footwear for the spring and summer seasons! The road to this store is the main highway to good shoes and to complete shoe satisfaction!

We're now showing the best spring creations in footwear for men, women, boys, misses and children! There are many new models in both High and Low-Cut Shoes! We've splendid Shoes built for comfort and durability, and a most attractive display of footwear showing the many beautiful new style features! It's a great pleasure to look at such Shoes! Then, regardless of the advance in the cost of footwear, we are offering our trade splendid values—the best Shoes obtainable at any stated price!

May we not ask you to call and learn how unusually well we can please you with our footwear, and our painstaking service and at the same time suit the inclination of your purse?

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

C. S. Andrews, Prop., Barre, Vermont

Automobile Accessories!

We have what you are looking for: Lee Tires and Tubes, satisfactory mileage guaranteed; Tube Patches, Lace-On Shoes, Tire Pumps, Tire Talcum, Weed Chains and Cross Chains, Auto Jacks, Klaxon Hand and Electric Horns, Spot Lights, Warner's Lenses, Extra Bulbs for Lights, Apco Parts for Ford Cars, Rubber Mats for Ford Cars, Champion Spark Plugs, Speedometers, Stewart Speedometer Parts, Tire Gauges, Red Seal Batteries, Battery Testers, Socket Wrenches, Radiator Hose, Auto Tool Sets, Tool Boxes, Canvas Folding Pails, Thermos Bottles, Clocks, Pyrene and J. M. Fire Extinguishers, Brass Polish, Polac, Auto Polish, Mohair Dressing, Auto Robes, Goggles, Chamois, Wool Dusters, Harris Auto Oil (Light and Medium), Polarine Oil, Keystone Grease.

Simplex Vulcanizer, a new one, you can't afford to be without it; price, $2.50. Finish with Mione Hand Soap.

C. W. Averill & Co.

Telephone 500

Barre, Vermont

Haberdashery

The Newest Things the Market Affords

CLASSY NECKWEAR.

SHIRTS, all the bright patterns.

HOSIERY, the new shades.

GLOVES, in copes, silks, etc.

ARROW COLLARS, the latest styles.

STETSON and LAMSON and HUBBARD

HATS, $2.00 to $5.00.

Shall we see you to-day?

The Frank McWhorter Co.